

I favor strict telephone privacy laws and request the FCC not pre-empt Indiana state law with a lessor national standard. I am a physician and I need my phone available for important use and not tied up with unwanted phone solicitations. My personal life does not need additional intrusions from unwanted sources. Please protect us!